Renwick Concert
The Eric Renwick Recital was a decided success. From the minute the singer stepped onto the stage to the last number, the audience was with him. His performance was wholly unmarred by mannerisms is a joy. In an unusually pleasing voice with clear enunciation he gave an introduction to his selections. Prologue from I Pagliacci was rendered with much feeling in English, but the writer prefers the soft vowels of the language it was written in.
"Erl Tru" from Un Ballo in Maschera, written around old Boston days, proved to good advantage the volume of the singer. Great depth of feeling in many of his selections, yet always a steady reserve and much dignity. The whole program gave chance for range of voice; at all times his work was marked with sincerity for he had himself well in hand. Besides having a natural voice he had careful musical training which speaks well for his teachers. Never any striving for effect. "Dear Love When in Thine Arms" and "Inter Nos" were sung with fire and spontaneity; we felt what he was interpreting.
"Goin' Home" and "Were You There, when they captured him" with the sweet tones full of pathos that gripped the heart strings. Each number had a special appeal. His warm voice at times made at least one listener weep. The Spanish ballad "Kissin' the Baby" was easily visualized the rose-tinted flesh. Praise should also be given to Seldon T. Crafts for his sympathetic work at the piano.
We have heard that Eric Renwick was an arriving young artist, we think arrived the better word. If this young man works as conscientiously for the next five years we prophesy that his name will rank with the best of the nation. The writer has heard Amato, Gogorza and Ruffo. Mr. Renwick will leave for Italy in the fall for another year's study there, before accepting the position of soloist with the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Bartlett, 2nd base; James Dunforth, 3rd; Leslie H. Burnham, 4th; Clinton Young, 5th; Cyrus S. Tucker, cf, and Clarence M. Smith, lf.

Donald B. Partridge For Congress

Donald B. Partridge of Norway has listened to the urging of his friends and has responded to the request of his Republican constituency and has tossed his hat into the political ring and will run for Congress.
It is some twenty years since an Oxford county man has represented the state in the House of Representatives. "Don" has been universally called by his friends as an exceedingly well and worthwhile acquaintance not only in Oxford, but in all other counties in this Congressional district. Coupled to this wide acquaintance is his extreme likeability. As a clerk of courts for nine years he knows the judges and attorneys as few other men do. In his activities in behalf of the American Legion, in service clubs and the church he has added hosts of friends and acquaintances. Not until this vacancy opened, the withdrawal of Wallace H. White to run for the Senate, Mr. Partridge considered the advisability of entering the contest. His consent was secured by his friends, who have long considered his fitness for the office and the honor.
Temporarily he is unusually well fitted to fill the requirements of this office. Natural intelligence, poise and a quick and sympathetic understanding of human nature have equipped him for a broad comprehension of his responsibility not only to the folks back home but also to the Nation.
Now in the day when younger men are taking the place of those who drop out, it is natural that the host of those who have known him through the years should solicit his acquiescence and urge him to make the race.
It is the firm conviction of the political ally that Mr. Partridge will make a winning fight. This opinion is not confined to Oxford County, but is reached in practically all the counties in the district. The time, time, time, the man is the man. The Primary will see him home, first under the wire.
Donald B. Partridge was born June 7, 1891, at Norway Lake and educated in the district school and was graduated from Norway High in 1910. He played Norway High basketball team, was prize winner in the Lyford Interscholastic Speaking Contest, 1910, held at Colby College, competing with 20 contestants, and editor-in-chief of the school paper, the school magazine. He participated in high school dramatics and proved a successful actor. Mr. Partridge entered Bates College in 1910 and was graduated with honors four years later. In college he was class president, class orator, prize speaker for two years, a member of the Sophomore (Dunham) Debating Team. Member of the student council, member of various college clubs and reader with the musical club. He distinguished himself with leading part in the Paganini celebrating Bates' 50th anniversary. For three years he was principal of Canton High School. In 1914 he married Genevieve Sturtevant and they have three children, Donald, Jr., Charles S. and Jerry C. Partridge. Mr. Partridge made over fifty speeches on Oxford County men during the War, and has been Memorial Day orator and popular after dinner speaker for more than ten years.
Mr. Partridge was elected Clerk of Courts in 1918, which office he has held for eleven consecutive years. He has taken the "stump" for Republicans in political campaigns, and has served as chairman of the Republican town committee, also chairman of the Republican county committee for six years.
His knowledge of law has been acquired through close application to home study and experience through contacts gained in his position as clerk of courts. Many evenings social activities have been conducted for law books and midnight oil, studiously preparing himself for admission to the Bar.
His career was realized on October 14, 1922, when on a motion of Hon. Albert J. Stearns of Norway, Justice Charles P. Barnes, who was presiding at the Supreme Court at South Paris, admitted the candidate. As a member of Oxford County Bar Association, Mr. Partridge has served in various offices and is reckoned one of the hustlers and energetic workers. Four years ago he opened a law office in Norway and has a large, growing practice.
He is Past Master of Oxford Lodge F. & A. M., a member of Oxford Royal Arch Chapter, Oxford Chapter Eastern Star, Ark Mariners and Portland Commandery, No. 2, also Past Chancellor of Penesseewassee Lodge Knights of Pythias, Past President of the Norway-Paris Kiwanis Club, and at the present time its secretary. He is town clerk of Norway and has served on the school committee as its chairman, and is a director of the Paris Trust Co., and one of the executive board. Despite his busy life, he has taken important roles in numerous dramatic productions for churches, clubs and clubs. He has assisted the American Legion boys in their annual minstrel shows and in other activities to aid the World War veterans.
"Don" possesses a winning personality that gains and holds steady friendships. His untiring efforts to do, together with his own past and present experiences, are qualifications, believed by his friends, to justify his desire for a chance in the primaries.

GATHERING AT THE FRED DUNN FARM

On Sunday, July 28, Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Dunn entertained a family gathering at their home in Northwest Norway. These gatherings have been held before but this was the first time that all were present and the closest relatives were present. Mrs. Ada R. Tables were set on the rectory lawn and tastefully decorated with flowers and refreshments. The grounds were brilliantly lighted and attractive. Members of the local parish attended in large numbers, with delegations from Oxford, Lewiston and other towns and cities.

CHILD CUT ON BROKEN WINDSHIELD

Letha, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Davis of Norway was badly cut when hurled through a wind shield in a head on collision Saturday forenoon. Two vehicles were taken in a scalp wound and four stitches were necessary to close a bad cut on her cheek.
The accident occurred at the one-way bridge on Crooked Neck on the Norway bridge when the Davis car and an auto with New Jersey plates came to head-on collision. Mrs. Davis was driving and had her daughter, Letha, by her side, on the left side of the car. The other car, a small one, was driven by a young man, who escaped unhurt.
Both cars were traveling at moderate rate. Owing to conditions as both approached the bridge, neither driver saw the other in time to avoid the collision.
The injured child was brought to the office of Dr. W. L. Hasty for treatment and is making good recovery at her home. A wrecker hauled the Davis car back to Norway.

Two arrests were made Thursday on Long Lake in Harrison, where parties were found fishing without a license.

Cummings and wife at Goat Island at the lake.

MEMBERS OF THREE-QUARTER CENTURY CLUB

The Norway-Paris Kiwanis Club has been asked to revise the roster of the Three-Quarter Century Club. If everybody living in the town of Norway, who was born previous to 1855, would send their names, addresses and date of birth to the office of Donald B. Partridge and likewise those living in the town of Paris to the office of Robert W. Wheeler, it would greatly assist the committee and insure a complete list.
It will be unfortunate if anybody is overlooked for the Three-Quarter Century Club will meet this year in Lewiston. Friends of anyone eligible can assist in making this roster corrected to date.

Stomach Disorders First Revealed by Coated Tongue

Your tongue is nothing more than the upper end of your stomach and intestines. It is the first thing your doctor looks at. It tells at a glance the condition of your digestive system—and physicians say that 90% of all sickness starts with stomach and bowel trouble.

A coated tongue is a danger signal of those digestive disorders which lead to so many kinds of serious illness. It tells why the least exertion gives you pain; why you have pains in the bowels, gas, sour stomach, dizzy spells.

Coating on the tongue is a sign that you need Tanlac—the medicine which has helped thousands who were physical wrecks from stomach and bowel troubles—who had "tried everything" in vain and about given up hope.

Tanlac contains no mineral drugs; it is made of barks, herbs and roots. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

Richmond, son of the Norway, in a regular Saturday night event.

For this week, Saturday, the special feature is Miss Marjorie Burton in a specialty, "Songs and how."

Miss Burton has been prevailed upon to come to Norway, breaking a solemn vow she made to herself to let nothing stand in the way of a long needed rest with no thoughts of the spot light and her make-up box.

She comes directly from five consecutive years on the "big time" circuit of B. P. Keith and the management promises she will captivate young and old.

Capt. "Mac" and his Pirate Band have been looked to play at Fairview Park, Hoon, Intervale, N. H., on Wednesday evening, taking with them Jean LaRae as a special added attraction.

They are also booked for the Norway Nature Club, Monday night, the Bridgton Opera House, August 14th; Camp DeMolay on Waubesa Island, Lake Winnepesaukee, and many other engagements throughout the season.

Each night now shows improvement over preceding nights, indicating that the "Pirate's Den" has met with the favor of the public and that the high type of amusement offered by the management is keenly appreciated. The "Nite Club" idea is very popular with regular reservations being made for tables.

Tentative plans now call for a five person revue for the "Nite Club Nite" feature Saturday, August 10th. The following week a return engagement of Jean LaRae, followed by "Rue House" Williams, in "Lances that are different," a number that will be hard to stop. Later in the month there will be a revue of dancing girls in "Follies of the Pirates," which the management guarantees will delight as well as surprise all. Labor Day will bring to a close the season of "Pirates." On this night there will be a galaxy of entertainment, noise-makers for all, featuring "Whoopie" that is "Whoopie."

Many visitors to this section visit "Pirates" and all praise it as a delightfully different and a place Norway can be proud of.

Norway and Oxford of the Pine Tree League meet on the fair grounds, Saturday, Aug. 3, at 2:30 p. m. Oxford has been going strong the past few weeks and a lively fight is expected. Entertainment runs high when the outfits clash with plenty of fun along the side lines.

David J. Matter and brother, Alvin, of Bridgton, N. Y., are home for a week or ten days. They came by auto early Wednesday morning. Mrs. Matter and children will return with him to Bridgton, where they reside.

AT THE PIRATE'S DEN

Much credit is due the managers of the "Pirate's Den" for bringing to Norway Miss Louise Fabian, the popular acrobatic dancer, and Miss Marion Tyler, one of the sweetest and most demure little toe dancers ever seen locally. Both of these young ladies are regularly featured at the Symphony Restaurant in Boston, where they have built for themselves a name that demands respect. They were presented by the management of the "Nite Club Nite" as a regular Saturday night event.
